Mexican Dancer I, and El Ranchero
by Keiko Tanabe

Keiko was born in Kyoto, Japan, and currently resides in San Diego, California. Mostly self-taught, Keiko began her professional art career in 2005. Since then, her paintings have been showcased in numerous national and international exhibitions, both juried and invitational, gaining worldwide recognition. Her artwork has been acquired by private and corporate collectors from around the globe. Additionally, her paintings have been published and featured in leading art magazines and various publications in the United States, Europe, and Asia. Since 2011, she has been a sought-after workshop instructor, conducting numerous workshops and live demonstrations worldwide and has frequently served as a juror for art exhibitions at both national and international levels. In 2018, she was appointed to the advisory board of American Watercolor Weekly. She has also published several books and four DVDs. Since 2021, she has been an official advocate for Savoir-Faire, Sennelier, Cretacolor, Fabriano, and Raphael. She is also an Escoda International Brand Ambassador.
